

David McCampbell Battalion, USNSCC
Training Ship Lassen, USNLCC
Cadet Expectations

Cadets will conduct themselves honorably at all times, including

- Being completely truthful
- Being polite and considerate to all people
- Showing proper military bearing

Cadets will support each other through positive interactions, including

- Building one another up with encouragement
- Maintaining an environment free of cursing, inappropriate jokes, or comments.

Cadets will be respectful to all adults and cadets, including

- Saying "Yes, sir/ma'am," "No, sir/ma'am," etc.
- Obedying those placed in authority over them whether young or old
- Following military courtesies

Cadets will act responsibly through

- Being on-time to all events
- Reading the Plan of the Day in advance and preparing for drill
- Maintaining proper grooming
- Wearing the uniform with pride
- Using chain of command to answer questions and deal with concerns
- Coming to drill properly hydrated
- Safeguarding their Sea Cadet ID cards

Cadets will take advantage of the education offered through the program

- By attending all drills, work days, community service, and fundraisers
- By completing the advancement courses assigned to them in a timely manner
- By exercising daily to improve physical fitness
- By attending field trips and at least one (NLCC) or two (NSCC) summer trainings per year*

*Lack of attendance at regular events will result in not attending field trips and summer training.

Parent Expectations

- Make sure that your cadet is on time to each event.
- Pick up your cadet at the appointed time.
- Be an active member of the unit Booster Club.
- Help your cadet maintain his/her uniform properly.
- Encourage your cadet to do his/her courses in the assigned timeframe.
- Encourage your cadet to exercise!
- Return ALL uniforms if your cadet leaves the program. Turn in uniforms that are outgrown.
- Provide transportation to/from advanced training.
- Purchase footwear (boots, dress shoes, tennis shoes) for your cadet.
- Remember that all Sea Cadets' officers are volunteering their time to work with your cadet.

_____
Cadet Signature

_____
Parent Signature

_____
CO Signature

_____
Date